HONG KONG SPECIAL ADMINISTRATIVE REGION

ORDINANCE NO. 13 OF 2013

C. Y. LEUNG
Chief Executive
25 July 2013

An Ordinance to amend the Trustee Ordinance and the Perpetuities and Accumulations Ordinance to extend trustees' powers in certain aspects; to impose a statutory duty of care on trustees; to provide for the validity of certain trusts; to abolish the rule against perpetuities; to change the rule against excessive accumulations of income; and to provide for related and consequential amendments.

[1 December 2013]

Enacted by the Legislative Council.

Part 1

Preliminary

1. Short title and commencement

- (1) This Ordinance may be cited as the Trust Law (Amendment) Ordinance 2013.
 - (2) This Ordinance comes into operation on 1 December 2013.

Part 2

Amendments to Trustee Ordinance

2. Trustee Ordinance amended

The Trustee Ordinance (Cap. 29) is amended as set out in this Part.

3. Section 2 amended (interpretation)

(1) Section 2, English text, definition of trust for sale—

Repeal the full stop

Substitute a semicolon.

(2) Section 2—

Add in alphabetical order

“2013 amending Ordinance (《2013年修訂條例》) means the Trust Law (Amendment) Ordinance 2013 (13 of 2013);

body corporate (法人團體) means a body corporate incorporated or established in Hong Kong or elsewhere;

statutory duty of care (法定謹慎責任), in relation to a trustee, means the duty of care required to be exercised by the trustee under section 3A as read with the Third Schedule; trust funds (信託基金) means any income or capital funds of a trust.”.

4. Section 3 amended (application)

Section 3—

Repeal subsections (1) and (2)

Substitute

- “(1) This Ordinance applies to trusts (whenever created) including, so far as this Ordinance applies, executorships and administratorships whenever constituted.
- (2) Subject to subsection (2A), the powers conferred by this Ordinance on trustees are in addition to the powers conferred by the instrument creating the trust or an enactment.
- (2A) The powers conferred by this Ordinance on trustees—
- (a) apply if, and so far only as, a contrary intention is not expressed in the instrument creating the trust or an enactment; and
 - (b) have effect subject to the terms of that instrument or enactment.
- (2B) Subsections (1) and (2) have effect except as otherwise stated in this Ordinance.”.

5. Part IA added

After section 3—

Add

“Part IA

Statutory Duty of Care

3A. Statutory duty of care

- (1) If the statutory duty of care applies to a trustee as provided in the Third Schedule, the trustee must exercise the care and skill that is reasonable in the circumstances, having regard to—
- (a) any special knowledge or experience that the trustee has or holds out as having; and

- (b) if the trustee is acting in that capacity in the course of a business or profession, any special knowledge or experience that is reasonably expected of a person acting in the course of that kind of business or profession.
 - (2) If the statutory duty of care applies to a trustee when exercising a power or doing an act, that duty has effect in place of any common law rules and equitable principles regarding the duty and standard of care owed by the trustee to the beneficiaries of the trust when exercising the power or doing the act.
 - (3) The statutory duty of care does not apply to a trustee if, or in so far as, it appears from the instrument creating the trust or an enactment that the duty is not meant to apply.
 - (4) The statutory duty of care does not apply in relation to a trust created before the commencement date of this section in so far as provision to the effect that subsection (1) does not apply is made by a deed executed—
 - (a) if the trust was created by a person who is of full capacity, by that person;
 - (b) if the trust was created by more than one person, by all the persons who are of full capacity; or
 - (c) if none of the persons creating the trust is of full capacity, by—
 - (i) the sole beneficiary under the trust who is absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust and—
 - (A) is an individual of full age and capacity; or
 - (B) is a body corporate whose constitution does not prohibit it from exercising the power under this section; or

- (ii) all the beneficiaries under the trust who (taken together) are absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust and each of whom is either—
 - (A) an individual of full age and capacity; or
 - (B) a body corporate whose constitution does not prohibit it from exercising the power under this section.”.

(1) The trustee of a trust may—

- (a) insure any property that is subject to the trust against loss or damage due to any event; and
- (b) pay the premiums out of the trust funds.

(2) If a property is held on a bare trust, the power to insure the property is subject to any direction given by the sole beneficiary or (if more than one beneficiary) each of the beneficiaries that—

- (a) the property is not to be insured; or
- (b) the property is not to be insured except on the conditions specified in the direction.

- (3) For the purpose of subsection (2), a property is held on a bare trust if it is held on trust for—
- (a) the sole beneficiary under the trust who is absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust and—
 - (i) is an individual of full age and capacity; or
 - (ii) is a body corporate whose constitution does not prohibit it from exercising the power under this section; or
 - (b) all the beneficiaries under the trust who (taken together) are absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust and each of whom is either—
 - (i) an individual of full age and capacity; or
 - (ii) a body corporate whose constitution does not prohibit it from exercising the power under this section.
- (4) If a direction under subsection (2) is given, the power to insure, so far as it is subject to the direction, ceases to be a delegable function for the purpose of section 41B (power to appoint agents).”.

“40A. Appointment and retirement of trustees on beneficiaries’ directions

(1) This section applies in relation to a trust if—

(a) no person is nominated for the purpose of appointing new trustees by the instrument creating the trust or an enactment; and

(b) either—

(i) the sole beneficiary under the trust is absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust and—

(A) is an individual of full age and capacity; or

(B) is a body corporate whose constitution does not prohibit it from exercising the power under this section; or

(ii) all the beneficiaries under the trust (taken together) are absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust and each of whom is either—

(A) an individual of full age and capacity; or

- (B) a body corporate whose constitution does not prohibit it from exercising the power under this section.
- (2) The sole beneficiary or all the beneficiaries may give either or both of the following directions—
- (a) a written direction to a trustee directing the trustee to retire from the trust;
 - (b) a written direction to a sole trustee or all the trustees for the time being or, if there is none, to the personal representative of the last person who was a trustee, directing the sole trustee, trustees or the personal representative to appoint by writing a person specified in the direction as a trustee.
- (3) A trustee to whom a direction under subsection (2)(a) has been given must make a deed declaring the trustee's retirement if—
- (a) reasonable arrangements have been made for the protection of any rights of the trustee in connection with the trust;
 - (b) after the trustee has retired, there will be either a trust corporation or at least 2 persons to act as trustees of the trust; and
 - (c) either—
 - (i) another person is to be appointed as a new trustee on the trustee's retirement (whether in compliance with a direction given under subsection (2)(b) or otherwise); or
 - (ii) the continuing trustees by deed consent to the retirement.
- (4) When the deed declaring the trustee's retirement is made—
- (a) the retirement takes effect and the trustee is discharged from the trust; and

- (b) the trustee and the continuing trustees (together with any new trustee) must (subject to any arrangement for the protection of the rights of the retiring trustee) do anything necessary to vest the property subject to the trust in—
 - (i) the continuing trustees; or
 - (ii) the continuing trustees and new trustees.
- (5) This section has effect subject to the restrictions imposed by section 36 on the number of trustees.

40B. Appointment of substitute for incapacitated trustee

- (1) This section applies in relation to a trust if—
 - (a) a trustee, because of mental incapacity as defined by section 2(1) of the Mental Health Ordinance (Cap. 136), is incapable of exercising the trustee's functions (the incapacitated trustee);
 - (b) no person is entitled, willing and able to appoint, under section 37(1), a new trustee in place of the incapacitated trustee; and
 - (c) either—
 - (i) the sole beneficiary under the trust is absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust and—
 - (A) is an individual of full age and capacity; or
 - (B) is a body corporate whose constitution does not prohibit it from exercising the power under this section; or
 - (ii) all the beneficiaries under the trust (taken together) are absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust and each of whom is either—

- (A) an individual of full age and capacity; or
 - (B) a body corporate whose constitution does not prohibit it from exercising the power under this section.
- (2) Either the sole beneficiary or all the beneficiaries may give a written direction to the specified attorney or committee to appoint a person specified in the direction to be a new trustee in place of the incapacitated trustee.
- (3) In subsection (2)—
 - (a) the specified attorney is an attorney acting for the incapacitated trustee under an enduring power of attorney; and
 - (b) the specified committee is a committee of the estate or other person acting for the incapacitated trustee appointed or authorized by the court under Part II of the Mental Health Ordinance (Cap. 136).

40C. Provisions supplementary to sections 40A and 40B

- (1) For the purposes of sections 40A and 40B, a direction is given by all the beneficiaries if—
 - (a) a single direction is jointly given by all of them; or
 - (b) in compliance with subsection (2), a direction is given by each of them (whether solely or jointly with one or more, but not all, of the others),and none of them by writing withdraws the direction given before it has been complied with.
- (2) If more than one direction is given, each beneficiary must specify for the appointment or retirement the same person or persons.

- (3) Section 37(7) (providing for the powers, authorities and discretions of new trustees) applies to a trustee appointed under section 40A or 40B as if the trustee were appointed under section 37.

40D. Application of sections 40A and 40B

- (1) Sections 40A and 40B do not apply in relation to a trust if a contrary intention is expressed in the instrument creating the trust or an enactment.
- (2) Sections 40A and 40B do not apply in relation to a trust created before the commencement date of those sections in so far as provision to the effect that those sections do not apply is made by a deed executed—
- (a) if the trust was created by a person who is of full capacity, by that person; or
 - (b) if the trust was created by more than one person, by all the persons who are of full capacity.
- (3) A deed executed for the purpose of subsection (2) is irrevocable.
- (4) If a deed is executed for the purpose of subsection (2)—
- (a) the deed does not affect anything done before its execution to comply with a direction given under section 40A or 40B; but
 - (b) a direction given under section 40A or 40B that has not been complied with before the execution of the deed ceases to have effect.
- (5) Sections 40A and 40B do not apply to the appointment and retirement of a personal representative.”.

26. Section 41 amended (vesting of trust property in new or continuing trustees)

Section 41(2)—

Repeal

“the statutory power”

Substitute

“section 40 or 40A”.

27. Parts IVA to IVD added

Add

“Part IVA

Appointment of Agents, Nominees and Custodians

Division 1—Application

41A. Application of Part IVA

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 41I(6)—
 - (a) this Part applies in relation to a trust having a sole trustee in the same way as it applies to a trust that has more than one trustee; and
 - (b) references to trustees in this Part (except in sections 41C(1) and 41J(6)) include the sole trustee of a trust.
- (2) The powers conferred by this Part are only exercisable by trustees jointly if there is more than one trustee.

Division 2—Agents

41B. Power to appoint agents

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Division, the trustees of a trust may authorize a person to exercise one or more of their delegable functions as their agent.

- (2) For a trust that is not a charitable trust, the trustees' delegable functions are any functions of the trustees other than—
- (a) a function relating to whether, or in what way, any assets of the trust are to be distributed;
 - (b) a power to decide whether any fees or other payment due to be made out of the trust funds is to be made out of income or capital of the trust;
 - (c) a power to appoint a person to be a trustee of the trust; or
 - (d) a power conferred by the instrument creating the trust or an enactment that permits the trustees to delegate any of their functions or to appoint a person to act as a nominee or custodian.
- (3) For a charitable trust, the trustees' delegable functions are—
- (a) a function relating to carrying out a decision that the trustees have taken;
 - (b) a function relating to the investment of assets subject to the trust (including, in the case of land held as an investment, managing the land and creating or disposing of an interest in the land); and
 - (c) a function relating to the raising of funds for the trust (otherwise than by means of profits of a trade which is an integral part of carrying out the trust's charitable purpose).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(c), a trade, whether carried on in Hong Kong or elsewhere, is an integral part of carrying out a trust's charitable purpose if the profits of the trade are applied solely for the purposes of the trust and either—

- (a) the trade is carried on in the course of the actual carrying out of a primary purpose of the trust; or
- (b) the work in connection with the trade is mainly carried out by the beneficiaries of the trust.

41C. Persons who may act as agents

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person whom the trustees may under section 41B authorize to exercise functions as the trustees' agent includes one or more of the trustees.
- (2) The trustees may not authorize 2 or more persons to exercise the same function unless the persons are to exercise the function jointly.
- (3) The trustees may under section 41B authorize a person to exercise a function as their agent even though the person is also appointed to act as the trustees' nominee or custodian (whether under section 41G, 41H or 41I or any other power).

41D. Linked functions, etc.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who is authorized under section 41B to exercise a function as the trustees' agent is (whatever the terms of agency) subject to any specific duties or restrictions attached to the function.
- (2) A person who is authorized under section 41B to exercise a power which is subject to a requirement to obtain advice is not subject to the requirement if the person is the kind of person from whom it would have been proper for the trustees, in compliance with the requirement, to obtain advice.

41E. Terms of agency

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), section 41F(2) and Part IVB (remuneration and expenses), the trustees may under section 41B authorize a person to exercise functions as their agent on the terms as to remuneration and other matters that the trustees may determine.
- (2) The trustees may not under section 41B authorize a person to exercise functions as their agent on any of the terms mentioned in subsection (3) unless it is reasonably necessary for them to do so.
- (3) The terms are—
 - (a) a term permitting the agent to sub-delegate the trustees' powers or functions to a delegate of the agent;
 - (b) a term restricting the liability of the agent, or a delegate of the agent, to the trustees or to any beneficiary; and
 - (c) a term permitting the agent to act in circumstances capable of giving rise to a conflict of interest.

41F. Special restrictions relating to asset management

- (1) The trustees may not under section 41B authorize a person to exercise any of their asset management functions as their agent except by an agreement made, or evidenced, in writing.
- (2) In addition, the trustees may not under section 41B authorize a person to exercise any of their asset management functions as their agent unless—
 - (a) the trustees have provided that person with a statement that gives guidance as to how the functions are to be exercised (policy statement); and

- (b) the agreement under which the agent is to act includes a term to the effect that the agent will secure compliance with—
 - (i) the policy statement; or
 - (ii) if the policy statement is revised or replaced under section 41M (review of agents), the revised or replaced policy statement.
- (3) The trustees must formulate any guidance given in the policy statement with a view to ensuring that the functions will be exercised in the best interest of the trust.
- (4) A policy statement must be made, or evidenced, in writing.
- (5) The asset management functions of trustees are their functions relating to—
 - (a) the investment of assets subject to the trust;
 - (b) the acquisition of property which is to be subject to the trust; and
 - (c) the management of property which is subject to the trust and the disposal of, or creation or disposal of an interest in, the property.

Division 3—Nominees and Custodians

41G. Power to appoint nominees

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Division, the trustees of a trust may—
 - (a) appoint a person to act as the trustees' nominee in relation to any of the assets of the trust as they determine; and
 - (b) take the steps that are necessary to ensure that those assets are vested in a person so appointed.

- (2) An appointment under subsection (1)(a) must be made, or evidenced, in writing.
- (3) This section does not apply to any trust having a custodian trustee.

41H. Power to appoint custodians

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Division, the trustees of a trust may appoint a person to act as a custodian in relation to any of the assets of the trust as they determine.
- (2) For the purposes of this Ordinance, a person is a custodian in relation to any assets if the person undertakes the safe custody of the assets or of any documents or records concerning the assets.
- (3) An appointment under subsection (1) must be made, or evidenced, in writing.
- (4) This section does not apply to any trust having a custodian trustee.

41I. Investment in bearer securities

- (1) Trustees may, unless expressly prohibited by the instrument creating the trust or an enactment, retain or invest in securities payable to bearer which, if not so payable, would have been authorized investments.
- (2) A direction that investments must be retained or made in the name of a trustee is not an express prohibition referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) If trustees retain or invest in securities payable to bearer, the trustees must appoint a person to act as a custodian of the securities.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the instrument creating the trust or an enactment contains a provision that (however expressed) permits the trustees to retain or invest in securities payable to bearer without appointing a person as a custodian.
- (5) An appointment under subsection (3) must be made, or evidenced, in writing.
- (6) Subsections (3), (4) and (5) do not impose a duty on a sole trustee if that trustee is a trust corporation.
- (7) Subsections (3), (4) and (5) do not apply to any trust having a custodian trustee.

41J. Persons who may be appointed as nominees or custodians

- (1) A person may not be appointed under section 41G as a nominee unless one of the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) is satisfied.
- (2) The conditions are—
 - (a) the person carries on a business that consists of, or includes, acting as a nominee;
 - (b) the person is a body corporate that is controlled by the trustees.
- (3) A person may not be appointed under section 41H or 41I as a custodian to undertake the safe custody of the assets or of any documents of title concerning the assets unless one of the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) is satisfied.
- (4) The conditions are—
 - (a) the person carries on a business that consists of, or includes, acting as a custodian;
 - (b) the person is a body corporate that is controlled by the trustees.

- (5) For the purpose of subsections (2)(b) and (4)(b), a body corporate is controlled by the trustees if the trustees have the power to ensure that the affairs of the body corporate are conducted in accordance with the wishes of the trustees—
- (a) by means of holding shares or possessing voting power in, or in relation to, that body corporate or any other body corporate; or
 - (b) because of any powers conferred by the articles of association or other document regulating that body corporate or any other body corporate.
- (6) Subject to subsections (1) and (3), the persons whom the trustees may under section 41G, 41H or 41I (as the case requires) appoint as a nominee or custodian—
- (a) include one of the trustees, if that one is a trust corporation; or
 - (b) include 2 or more of the trustees, if they are to act as joint nominees or joint custodians.
- (7) The trustees may under section 41G appoint a person to act as their nominee even though the person is also—
- (a) authorized to exercise functions as the trustees' agent (whether under section 41B or any other power); or
 - (b) appointed to act as the trustees' custodian (whether under section 41H or 41I or any other power).
- (8) The trustees may under section 41H or 41I appoint a person to act as their custodian even though the person is also—
- (a) authorized to exercise functions as the trustees' agent (whether under section 41B or any other power); or

- (b) appointed to act as the trustees' nominee (whether under section 41G or any other power).

41K. Terms of appointment of nominees and custodians

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) and Part IVB (remuneration and expenses), the trustees may under section 41G, 41H or 41I appoint a person to act as a nominee or custodian on the terms as to remuneration and other matters that the trustees may determine.
- (2) The trustees may not under section 41G, 41H or 41I appoint a person to act as a nominee or custodian on any of the terms mentioned in subsection (3) unless it is reasonably necessary for them to do so.
- (3) The terms are—
 - (a) a term permitting the nominee or custodian to sub-delegate the trustees' powers or functions to a delegate of the nominee or custodian;
 - (b) a term restricting the liability of the nominee or custodian, or a delegate of the nominee or custodian, to the trustees or to any beneficiary; and
 - (c) a term permitting the nominee or custodian to act in circumstances capable of giving rise to a conflict of interest.

Division 4—Review of and Liability for Agents, Nominees and Custodians

41L. Application of sections 41M, 41N and 41O

- (1) Sections 41M, 41N and 41O apply in a case where trustees have, under section 41B, 41G, 41H or 41I—

- (a) authorized a person to exercise functions as their agent; or
 - (b) appointed a person to act as a nominee or custodian.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), sections 41M, 41N and 41O also apply in a case where trustees have, under a power conferred on them by the instrument creating the trust or an enactment—
 - (a) authorized a person to exercise functions as their agent; or
 - (b) appointed a person to act as a nominee or custodian.
- (3) If the application of section 41M, 41N or 41O in a case is inconsistent with the terms of the instrument creating the trust or an enactment, that section does not apply to that case.

41M. Review of agents

- (1) While an agent continues to act for a trust, the trustees of the trust must—
 - (a) keep under review the arrangements under which the agent acts and the way in which those arrangements are being put into effect;
 - (b) if circumstances make it appropriate to do so, consider whether there is a need to exercise any power of intervention that the trustees have; and
 - (c) if the trustees consider that there is a need to do so, exercise the power of intervention.
- (2) If an agent has been authorized to exercise asset management functions, the duty to review under subsection (1) includes—

- (a) a duty to consider whether there is a need to revise or replace the policy statement made for the purposes of section 41F;
 - (b) if the trustees consider that there is a need to revise or replace the policy statement, a duty to do so; and
 - (c) a duty to assess whether the policy statement is being complied with.
- (3) The trustees must carry out the review as frequently as the circumstances of the trust may require having regard to the nature of the functions required to be exercised by the agent.
- (4) Section 41F(3) and (4) applies to the revision or replacement of a policy statement under this section as it applies to the making of a policy statement under that section.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
- power of intervention (干預權力) includes—
- (a) a power to give directions to the agent; and
 - (b) a power to revoke the authorization or appointment of the agent.

41N. Review of nominees and custodians

- (1) While a nominee or custodian continues to act for a trust, the trustees of the trust must—
- (a) keep under review the arrangements under which the nominee or custodian acts and the way in which those arrangements are being put into effect;
 - (b) if circumstances make it appropriate to do so, consider whether there is a need to exercise any power of intervention that the trustees have; and

- (c) if the trustees consider that there is a need to do so, exercise the power of intervention.
- (2) The trustees must carry out the review as frequently as the circumstances of the trust may require having regard to the nature of the functions required to be exercised by the nominee or custodian.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
power of intervention (干預權力) includes—
 - (a) a power to give directions to the nominee or custodian; and
 - (b) a power to revoke the appointment of the nominee or custodian.

41O. Liability for agents, nominees and custodians

- (1) A trustee of a trust is not liable for any act or omission of an agent, nominee or custodian acting for the trust (each is a representative) if the trustee has discharged the statutory duty of care applicable to the trustee under Division 2 of the Third Schedule when—
 - (a) entering into the arrangements under which a person acts as the representative; and
 - (b) carrying out the duties to review under section 41M or 41N.
- (2) If a trustee has agreed to a term under which a representative is permitted to sub-delegate the trustee's powers or functions to a delegate of the representative, the trustee is not liable for any act or omission of the delegate if the trustee has discharged the statutory duty of care applicable to the trustee under Division 2 of the Third Schedule when—
 - (a) agreeing to that term; and

- (b) carrying out the duties to review under section 41M or 41N as far as the duties relate to the use of the delegate.

41P. Effect of trustees exceeding their powers

A failure by the trustees to act within the limits of the powers conferred by this Part does not invalidate—

- (a) the authorization of a person to exercise a function of the trustees as an agent; or
- (b) the appointment of a person to act as a nominee or custodian.

Part IVB

Remuneration and Expenses

41Q. Application of Part IVB

This Part applies in respect of—

- (a) services provided to, or on behalf of, a trust (whenever created) on or after the commencement date of this Part; or
- (b) expenses incurred on behalf of a trust (whenever created) on or after the commencement date of this Part.

41R. Interpretation of Part IVB

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a trustee acts in a professional capacity if—
 - (a) the trustee acts in the course of a profession or business that consists of, or includes, the provision of services in connection with—
 - (i) the management or administration of trusts generally or a particular kind of trust; or
 - (ii) any particular aspect of the management or administration of trusts generally or a particular kind of trust; and
 - (b) the services that the trustee provides to, or on behalf of, the trusts fall within the description of paragraph (a).
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, a person acts as a lay trustee if the person—
 - (a) is not a trust corporation; and
 - (b) does not act in a professional capacity.

41S. Remuneration of trustees under instrument creating trust

- (1) Subject to subsection (2)—
 - (a) subsections (3) and (4) apply to a trustee who—
 - (i) is a trust corporation; or
 - (ii) is not a trust corporation, but is acting in a professional capacity as a trustee of a non-charitable trust; and
 - (b) subsections (3) and (4) apply to a trustee—
 - (i) if the trustee is not a trust corporation, but is acting in a professional capacity as a trustee, other than the sole trustee, of a charitable trust; but

- (ii) only to the extent to which a majority of the other trustees of the charitable trust have agreed that those subsections apply to the trustee, subject to any inconsistent provision in the instrument creating the trust or an enactment.
- (2) Subsections (3) and (4) apply to a trustee—
 - (a) only if there is a provision in the instrument creating the trust or an enactment entitling the trustee to receive payment out of trust funds for services provided by the trustee to, or on behalf of, the trust; and
 - (b) except to the extent to which any inconsistent provision is made in the instrument creating the trust or an enactment.
- (3) A trustee is to be treated as being entitled under the instrument creating the trust to receive payment for services provided even if the services are capable of being provided by a lay trustee.
- (4) Any payment to which a trustee is entitled for services provided is to be treated as remuneration for services (but not as a disposition of property) for the purposes of section 10 of the Wills Ordinance (Cap. 30) (avoidance of gifts to attesting witnesses and their spouses).

41T. Remuneration of trustees other than under instrument creating trust

- (1) Subject to subsection (2)—
 - (a) subsections (3) and (4) apply to a trustee who is a trust corporation; and

- (b) subsections (3) and (4) apply to a trustee who is not a trust corporation, but is acting in a professional capacity as a trustee, other than the sole trustee, of a trust if each of the other trustees of the trust has agreed in writing that the trustee may be remunerated for services provided by the trustee to, or on behalf of, the trust.
- (2) Subsections (3) and (4) apply to a trustee of a charitable or non-charitable trust only if the trustee's entitlement to remuneration—
 - (a) is not provided by the instrument creating the trust or an enactment; and
 - (b) is not expressly prohibited by a term in the instrument or enactment.
- (3) A trustee is entitled to receive reasonable remuneration out of trust funds for services provided by the trustee to, or on behalf of, the trust.
- (4) A trustee is to be treated as being entitled under this section to receive remuneration for services provided even if the services are capable of being provided by a lay trustee.
- (5) This section applies to a trustee authorized to act in another capacity as it applies to any other trustee.
- (6) For the purpose of subsection (5), a trustee authorized to act in another capacity is a trustee who has been authorized, under a power conferred by Part IVA (appointment of agents, nominees and custodians), the instrument creating the trust or an enactment—
 - (a) to exercise functions as a trustee's agent; or
 - (b) to act as a nominee or custodian.
- (7) For the purposes of this section—reasonable remuneration (合理酬金)—

- (a) means, in relation to the provision of services by a trustee of a trust, the remuneration that is reasonable in the circumstances for the provision of those services by the trustee to, or on behalf of, the trust; and
- (b) includes, in relation to the provision of services by a trustee who is an authorized institution under the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155) and provides those services in the course of, or incidental to, the exercise of its function as a trustee, the institution's reasonable charges for the provision of those services.

41U. Trustee's expenses

- (1) A trustee of a trust who has properly incurred expenses when acting on behalf of the trust—
 - (a) is entitled to be reimbursed from the trust funds for those expenses; or
 - (b) may pay for those expenses out of the trust funds.
- (2) This section applies to a trustee authorized to act in another capacity as it applies to any other trustee.
- (3) For the purpose of subsection (2), a trustee authorized to act in another capacity is a trustee who has been authorized, under a power conferred by Part IVA (appointment of agents, nominees and custodians), the instrument creating the trust or an enactment—
 - (a) to exercise functions as a trustee's agent; or
 - (b) to act as a nominee or custodian.

41V. Remuneration and expenses of agents, nominees and custodians

- (1) This section applies, if, under a power conferred by Part IVA (appointment of agents, nominees and custodians), the instrument creating the trust or an enactment, a person other than a trustee has been—
 - (a) authorized to exercise functions as a trustee's agent; or
 - (b) appointed to act as a nominee or custodian.
- (2) The trustees of the trust may remunerate the agent, nominee or custodian (each is a representative) out of trust funds for services if—
 - (a) the representative is engaged on terms entitling the representative to be remunerated for those services; and
 - (b) the amount does not exceed the remuneration that is reasonable in the circumstances for the provision of those services by the representative to, or on behalf of, the trust.
- (3) The trustees may reimburse the representative out of trust funds for any expenses properly incurred in exercising the representative's functions.

Part IVCExemption from Liability*41W. Trustee is not exempted from liability for breach of trust

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), this section applies to a trustee who—

- (a) acts in a professional capacity; and
 - (b) receives remuneration for the trustee's services provided to, or on behalf of, the trust.
 - (2) This section does not apply to an approved trustee of a registered scheme under the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Cap. 485).
 - (3) The terms of a trust must not—
 - (a) relieve, release or exonerate a trustee from liability for a breach of trust arising from the trustee's own fraud, wilful misconduct or gross negligence; or
 - (b) grant the trustee any indemnity against the trust property for the liability.
 - (4) A term of a trust is invalid to the extent to which it purports to—
 - (a) relieve, release or exonerate a trustee from liability for a breach of trust arising from the trustee's own fraud, wilful misconduct or gross negligence; or
 - (b) grant the trustee any indemnity against the trust property for the liability.
 - (5) This section has effect in respect of a trust created on or after the commencement date of the 2013 amending Ordinance.
 - (6) For a trust created before the commencement date of the 2013 amending Ordinance, this section—
 - (a) has effect in respect of the trust on the expiry of 1 year after that date; and
 - (b) does not affect the liability for anything done by a trustee of the trust within that 1-year period.

- (7) In this section, a reference to a trustee who acts in a professional capacity is to be construed in accordance with section 41R(1).

Part IVD

Reserve Power and Transfer of Movable Property

41X. Reserve power of settlor

- (1) A trust is not invalid only because of the person creating the trust (the settlor) reserving to the settlor any or all powers of investment or asset management functions under the trust.
- (2) If a power or function referred to in subsection (1) has been reserved by the settlor, a trustee who acts in accordance with the exercise of the power or function is not in breach of the trust.
- (3) If a trust was declared invalid by the court before the commencement date of the 2013 amending Ordinance, subsection (1) does not operate to revive the invalid trust on or after that date.
- (4) Subject to subsection (3), if the validity of a trust (whenever created) is being questioned, the court may take into account subsection (1) in determining the validity.

41Y. Transfer of movable property not affected by foreign law of inheritance

- (1) This section applies in relation to a trust (whenever created) only if—
 - (a) the trust is expressed to be governed by Hong Kong law; and

- (b) at all times when the trust is in force, each trustee of the trust is—
 - (i) an individual who ordinarily resides in Hong Kong;
 - (ii) a body corporate incorporated or established in Hong Kong; or
 - (iii) a body corporate incorporated or established outside Hong Kong and the central management and control of which is in Hong Kong.
- (2) A person who during his or her lifetime transfers any movable property to be held on trust (whenever created) is regarded as having the capacity to transfer the property if the person has capacity to do so under any of the following laws—
 - (a) the law applicable in Hong Kong;
 - (b) the law of the person's domicile or nationality; or
 - (c) the proper law of the transfer.
- (3) A law relating to inheritance or succession of a foreign jurisdiction does not affect the validity of the transfer of any movable property to be held on trust if the person transferring the movable property had the capacity to do so under subsection (2).
- (4) The reference to law in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (2) does not include any choice of law rules that form part of the law in any of those paragraphs.”.

Application of Statutory Duty of Care

Division 1—Investment

1. The statutory duty of care applies to a trustee when—
 - (a) exercising the power of investment under section 4(1) or any other power of investment, however conferred;
 - (b) exercising the power under section 5, 11(1), (2), (3), (4) or (5), 12 or 41I; or
 - (c) continuing to hold an investment that has ceased to be an investment authorized by the instrument creating the trust or the general law as mentioned in section 7.
2. For the purpose of section 1(a) of this Schedule, when investing any trust funds in any investment specified in the Second Schedule, the trustee must discharge the statutory duty of care in addition to complying with that Schedule.

Division 2—Agents, Nominees and Custodians

3. The statutory duty of care applies to a trustee when—
 - (a) entering into arrangements under which a person is authorized, under section 41B or any other power (however conferred), to exercise functions as an agent;
 - (b) entering into arrangements under which a person is appointed, under section 41G or any other power (however conferred), to act as a nominee;

- (c) entering into arrangements under which a person is appointed, under section 41H or any other power (however conferred), to act as a custodian; or
 - (d) carrying out a trustee's duty under section 41M (review of agents) or 41N (review of nominees and custodians).
- 4. For the purpose of section 3 of this Schedule, entering into arrangements under which a person is authorized to exercise functions as an agent or is appointed to act as a nominee or custodian includes—
 - (a) selecting the person who is to act;
 - (b) determining the terms on which the person is to act; and
 - (c) if the person is being authorized to exercise asset management functions, the preparation of a policy statement under section 41F.

Transitional and Saving Provisions

1. Savings for repeal of section 8 (investment in bearer securities)

If, immediately before the commencement date of section 8 of the 2013 amending Ordinance, a banker or banking company holds any securities payable to bearer deposited with it under the repealed section 8, then on and after that date, the banker or banking company is to be treated as having been appointed as a custodian of the securities under section 41I.

2. Savings for repeal of section 23 (deposit of documents for safe custody)

If, immediately before the commencement date of section 16 of the 2013 amending Ordinance, a banker, banking company or any other company holds any documents deposited with it under the repealed section 23, then on and after that date, the banker, banking company or other company is to be treated as having been appointed as a custodian of the documents under section 41H.

3. Savings for repeal of section 25 (power to employ agents)

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if, before the commencement date of section 18 of the 2013 amending Ordinance, a person has been employed or appointed to act as an agent under the repealed section 25(1) or (3).
- (2) For any period for which the employment or appointment has left to run on or after the commencement date, the person is to be treated as having been authorized to exercise functions as an agent under section 41B (and, if appropriate, as also having been appointed under section 41G or 41H to act as a nominee or custodian).
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if, before the commencement date of section 18 of the 2013 amending Ordinance, a person has been appointed to act as an agent or attorney under the repealed section 25(2) (power to employ agents or attorney in respect of property outside Hong Kong).
- (4) For any period for which the appointment has left to run on or after the commencement date, the person is to be treated as having been authorized to exercise functions as an agent under section 41B (and, if appropriate, as also having been appointed under section 41G or 41H to act as a nominee or custodian).

4. Transitional and savings provisions concerning Part 2 of 2013 amending Ordinance

Without affecting section 3 of this Ordinance, Part 2 of the 2013 amending Ordinance does not affect the legality and validity of anything done or omission made before the commencement date of that Part, except as otherwise expressly provided in the 2013 amending Ordinance.”.

- (1) The rule against perpetuities (or remoteness of vesting) and the rule against excessive accumulations have no effect in relation to an instrument to which this Part applies (as provided in section 3(1A)).
- (2) A trust (whether created by an instrument or otherwise) may continue in existence for an unlimited period unless the terms of the trust provide to the contrary.

3B. Restriction on accumulations for charitable trusts

- (1) This section applies to an instrument to the extent to which its terms (other than a term of a court order) provide for property to be held on trust for charitable purposes.
- (2) If—
 - (a) the terms of the instrument impose or confer on the trustees a duty or power to accumulate income; and

- (b) apart from this section the duty or power would last beyond the end of a period of 21 years beginning on the first day when the income must or may be accumulated, then subject to subsection (3), the duty or power ceases to have effect at the end of that 21-year period.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not have effect in relation to the instrument if its terms provide for the duty or power to accumulate income to cease to have effect—
 - (a) on the death of the settlor; or
 - (b) on the death of one of the settlors, as determined by name or by the order of their deaths.
- (4) If a duty or power to accumulate income ceases to have effect under subsection (2), the income to which the duty or power would have applied apart from this section must—
 - (a) go to the person who would have been entitled to it if there had been no duty or power to accumulate income; or
 - (b) be applied for the purposes for which it would have had to be applied if there had been no such duty or power to accumulate income.
- (5) This section applies whether or not the duty or power to accumulate income extends to income produced by the investment of income previously accumulated.

3C. Rule as to duration of non-charitable purpose trust not affected

This Part does not affect any rule of law that limits the duration of non-charitable purpose trusts.”.
